

Full Screen

Full-screen ads that cover the interface of their host app or site. These ads appear between content, so they place at natural transition points or breaks, such as in between activities or game levels. Their full-coverage is what differentiates them from other ad types, like pop-up, native, and banner ads.

Why prefer Interstitial ads:

- Larger sizes leave larger impressions on users
- Higher impression rates mean higher click-through rates

Full Screen ads mostly consists of these ad sizes. Indicating that creative size will be large. Therefore, there is more space to share your message.
